Release of ChordPro

Inspired by Ralph McTell's 'Streets of London'

| C G Am Em F C G7 C |

Intro

```
C                 G            Am          Em
Have you seen the player, with its home written songbook,
F            C          Dm   G7
Looking up the pages with a sadly look.
C            G            Am          Em
In his eyes he sees no joy, no motivation at his side.
F            C            G7          C
Yesterday's songbook telling yesterdays mood.
```
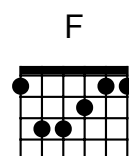

Chorus

```
    F               Em  C    Am
So if we can tell you your songs will shine
    D7                     G          G7
And say for you that there is ChordPro.
C           G
Let us take you by the hand,
    Am                 Em
And lead you through your gorgious songbook
F           C          G7                  C      G Am G7
We show you something to make you change your mind.
```

Songbook

```
C                 G            Am            Em
Have you seen a songbook that just looking boring,
F          C   Dm             G7
Plain looking text and just showing songs.
C            G            Am            Em
No motivation for playing..., just just keep on at  looking,
F            C          G7             C
Carrying the songbook without playing any songs.
```

Chorus   Chorus

| C G Am Em F C G7 C |

```
ChordPro released its new version
- A brand-new grapical application
- It will turn your songs into an SONGBOOK
```